

Artists of Abraham Lincoln portraits

Tulley C. Turney

Excerpts from newspapers and other sources

From the files of the Lincoln Financial Foundation Collection

Turney

LINCOLN PORTRAIT TO BE UNVEILED ON OLD SETTLERS' DAY

A new painting of Abraham Lincoln done by Tulley C. Turney, amateur artist of Fort Wayne, Ind. and presented by him as a gift to the Lincoln Memorial Court House in Metamora will be unveiled during the program at the Old Settlers' picnic in Metamora on August 23.

Mr. Tulley was a visitor at the Lincoln Memorial building here last year and finding no sizeable painting of Lincoln in the local collection of Lincoln pictures, volunteered to paint such a picture. He obtained an excellent photo of Lincoln from the collection of the Lincoln National Life Foundation of Fort Wayne and reproduced it in oil colors on canvas, making a picture about 19x25 inches in size, which he neatly framed. The picture was delivered to Miss Lillian Theena, custodian of the Memorial building here, Monday evening by Mr. Turney's son of Peoria. It will not be on exhibition until after it is unveiled on Old Settlers' day.

Turney, Tanya E.

DRAWER 19A

4-15-15-T

